Correcting Display Problem in STD*MIS

Once you have double clicked the STD*MIS icon the following screen should appear. If you screen graphics does not look like the screen below, you need to do the following to correct it.

```
              STD Control Program

      STD Management Information System

   Rel. 4.0c          Database: Advantage

   Enter User ID:
   Enter password:
```

1. First, log into the program with your user ID and password and accept the date and time screen as usual.   At the following screen, select "Configuration."
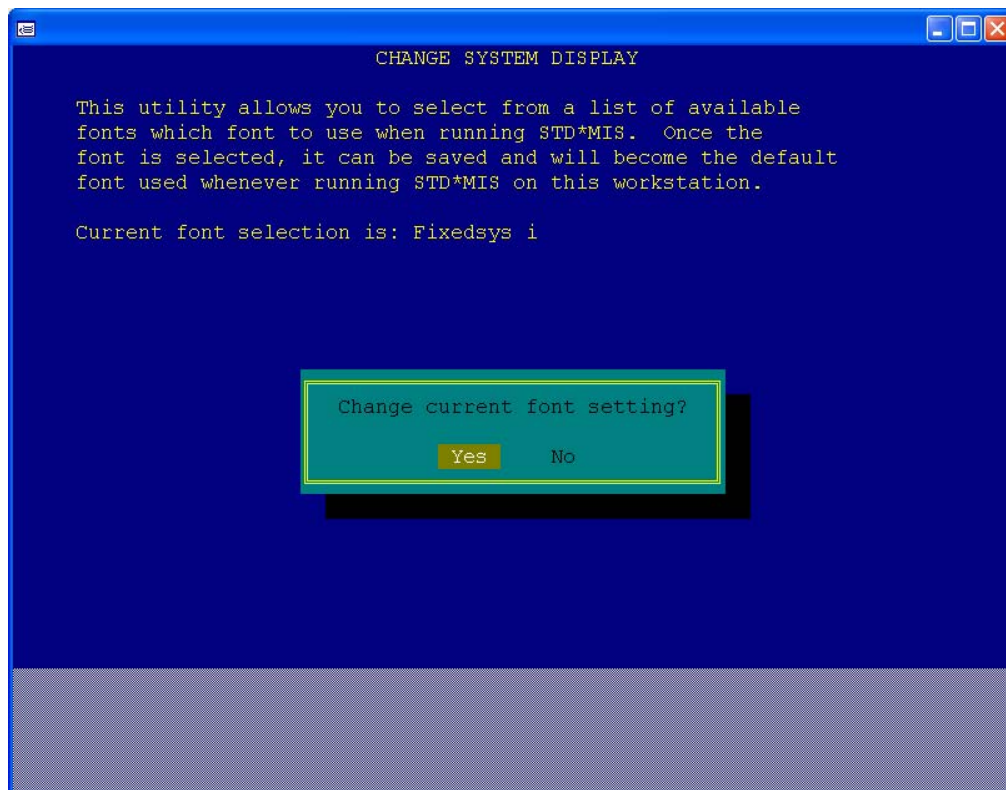

```
              STD Control Program

      STD Management Information System

   Rel. 4.0c          Database: Foxpro

          MAIN MENU

       Data Entry
       Reports
       Utilities
       Maintenance
       Configuration
```

2. Next select the "Change system display"

```
                    STD Control Program

              STD Management Information System

              Rel. 4.0c          Database: Foxpro

                 MAIN MENU

                 Dat        CONFIGURATION
                 Rep
                 Uti    Change system display
                 Mai    Set up system tables
                 Con    Update local configuration
```

3. Once you have made you selection, the following screen will appear. Select "yes" to change the font settings.

```
                       CHANGE SYSTEM DISPLAY

         This utility allows you to select from a list of available fonts which font to use when running STD*MIS.  Once the font is selected, it can be saved and will become the default
         font used whenever running STD*MIS on this workstation.

         Current font selection is: Fixedsys i

                  Change current font setting?

                         Yes       No
```

4. The following list will appear. Select "Lucida Console: and hit enter.

```
                        CHANGE SYSTEM DISPLAY

   This utility allows you to select from a list of available fonts which font to u┌──────────────────────────┐the font is selected, it │     AVAILABLE FONTS      │default font used whenever ru│                          │.
                        │ Arial terminal one       │
   Current font selectio│ Arial terminal two       │ │ Courier New              │
                        │ Courier                  │
                        │ EXTRA! APL New           │ │ Fixedsys                 │
                        │ KEA Bitmap Marquee       │
                        │ KEA Bitmap Symbol        │
                        │ KEA Bitmap               │
                        │ KEAtermX                 │
                        │ KEAterm                  │
                        │ Lucida ATTM Special      │
                        │ Lucida Console 5250 Special │
                        │ Lucida Console           │
                        └──────────────────────────┘
```

You will them be prompt to display a test page. You must answer yes to view the changes.

```
                        CHANGE SYSTEM DISPLAY

   This utility allows you to select from a list of available
   fonts which font to use when running STD*MIS.  Once the font is selected, it can be saved and will become the default
   font used whenever running STD*MIS on this workstation.

   Current font selection is: Fixedsys i

          ┌──────────────────────────────────────┐
          │ Display a test page using Lucida Console font? │
          │              Yes      No               │
          └──────────────────────────────────────┘
```
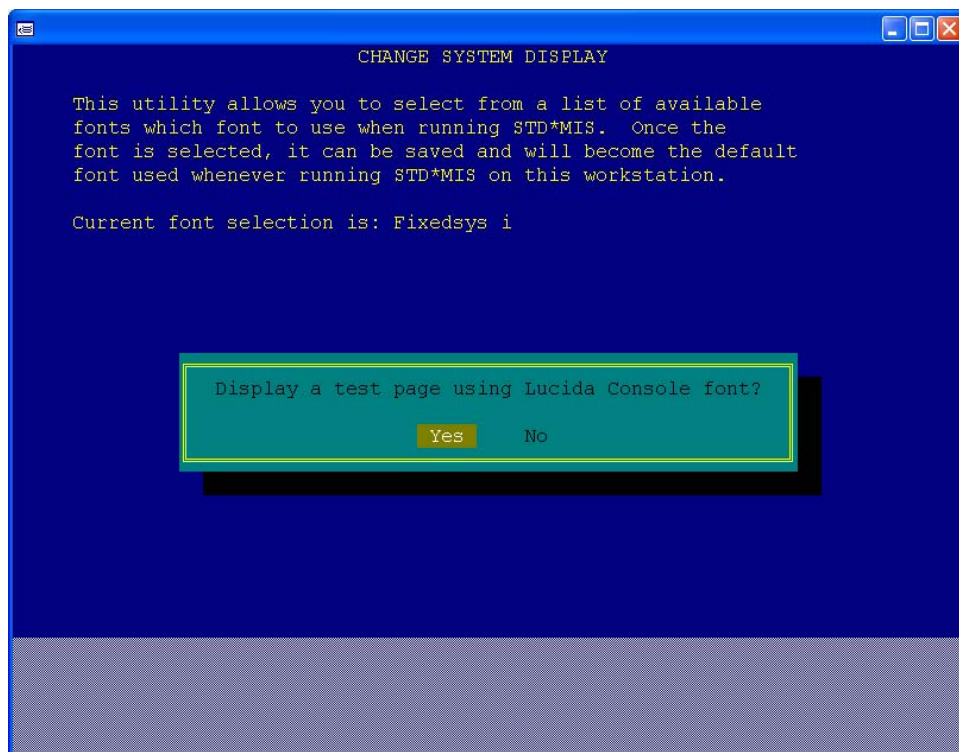

5. The systems will them display the changes. If you are satisfied with the display, Select "yes" to save the font changes, it not select "no" and try another font.